If you are a Life Scout, or just about to become one, this information is for you! Within is the collected wisdom of many an Eagle Scout who has taken the path before you. The Eagle Project must demonstrate leadership of others and provide service to a worthy institution other than the Boy Scouts. This may be a religious institution, school, or your community. Updated October 3, 2018 and January 30, 2019 The following information is updated from the printed "Guide to Advancement 2019." 9.0.1.0 The Eagle Scout Rank Application Process Since 1912, the Eagle Scout rank has represented a milestone of accomplishment—perhaps without equal—that is recognized across the country and even the world. While a Life Scout, plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a service project helpful to any religious institution, any school, or your community. (The project must benefit an organization other than the Boy Scouts of America.)
